

June is National Homeownership Month, and Regions Bank has the results of a new homeownership survey that finds an increasing number of people are remodeling or renovating their homes in the coming year to raise its value.

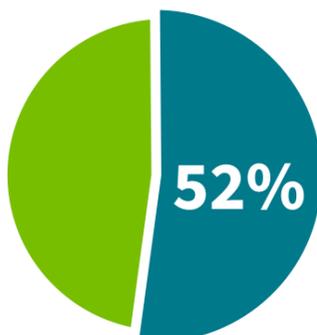

48%

of U.S. homeowners say they are likely to make updates to their current home in the coming year to increase value

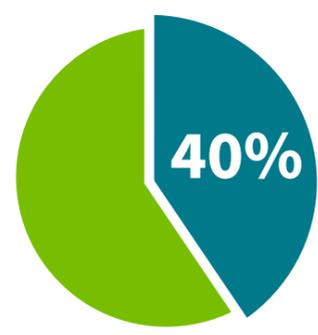

Younger homeowners are most enthusiastic about taking on a renovation or remodeling project.

Age 18-34

Age 35-54

Age 55+

Need to tap into home equity to finance projects?

42%

feel knowledgeable about these financing options compared with 38% of respondents last year